CALL FOR A MASS MEETING

All citizens of Palestine are requested to assemble at the City Hall at 6 o'clock this (Friday) evening, July 22nd, for the purpose of expressing in mass meeting, their denunciation of the acts of the unnatural and would-be assassin who addressed to Mr. Leroy Trice and his family the cruel and threatening letter of date July 14th. It is earnestly desired that all the citizens of Palestine, who favor law and order, and that have a desire to give public expression of their condemnation of the anarchistic sentiments expressed in said letter, be present and participate in this meeting.

A GENUINE OIL WELL IN

Business Men of Neches Affirm the Report and Say the Proposition Is a Good One.

Messrs. Claude R. Bell and John B. McDonald, two of Neches' leading merchants, arrived in the city this morning on the 11:10 train.

A Herald man interviewed them at once about the oil reports from their town. In answer to the question as to what there was in the matter, they both reaffirmed the report of a good strike of oil in the Davey well, and said that undoubtedly they had at last brought in a genuine oil well, though it would not be known just what its real value was until the bailing process was finished. These gentlemen say the well has been pronounced a good thing by a number of oil men who have been attracted to it by the reports that have gone out concerning it. The gentlemen appear to be enthusiastic.

A HOUSTON PAPER COMMENTS

On the Trice Letter—Thought to Have Local Connection.

The Houston Chronicle comments on the Trice letter as follows:

"The announcement that General Manager Leroy Trice has been made the object of threats was received in Houston with considerable interest. Officers, as well as private citizens, have made the matter a subject for discussion.

"Close scrutiny of the handwriting has led to the belief that the one who indicated it was evidently used to the pen and sufficiently educated to spell badly with a purpose. The further supposition is that the three signatures appearing at the bottom of the sheet were written by the same man.

"Some quarters the sequence of the events within the last few months has been followed with interest. The explosion at the house in Houston was followed by the explosions that occurred in the cars of the Houston Electric company. The more recent attempted hold-up of an International and Great Northern train and the use of dynamite in that case is believed by some to also have been the work of identical parties.

"Now comes the letter to Mr. Trice in which the writers claim that they are wanted in Houston for crimes committed and that a reward is offered for their capture. No rewards have been offered except for the arrest and conviction of the assailant of Captain William Christian and for those engaged in dynamiting street cars. The amount of the reward as stated in the Trice letter was $1200.

"No such amount was offered for the capture of the would-be assassin of Captain Christian. On the other hand the Chronicle on the day following the dynamiting of two cars at night and in the issue of a few hours following the third explosion beneath a car on the Houston avenue line contained the statement that a reward of $1250 had been offered for the capture of the outlaws.

"At that time the amount stood at $1250, $1000 offered by the street railway company and $250 by Chief of Police Ellis. Since then it has been increased to over $3000.

Now a reward of $5000 has been offered by the International and Great Northern railroad for evidence leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the writing of the most recently received letters.

"In case, as it is generally presumed, and so stated in the letter, the outlaws are the same, a reward of $8000 stands for the capture of the guilty party."

He had come on her dozing in a hammock, and when she woke up she accused him of stealing a kiss. "Well," said he, "I will admit that the temptation was too strong to be resisted. I did steal one little kiss." "One!" she exclaimed indignantly. "I counted eight before I woke up."—Western Publisher.
